The first sussion was concluded by a meet imbition at the City Hell, and the cit that your Committee trust that cometting similar, and perhaps over more comprehensive, may be attempted ere long. Bhortly after this, taking advantage of the presence in the galony of one of the ourselove of the British Museum, a deputation waited upon His Excellency the Governor and automitted a scheme for the improvement of the City Hall Museum. The Committee regret that up to the present nothing has resulted from their effort, but are assured that the
